

Autumn N. Bok Associate Broker

Autumn Bok joined the BND Commercial team in early 2006. She is a licensed Associate Broker in Indiana. Autumn interned with BND Commercial during the summer of 2005 where she gained invaluable experience to help her on her journey through the commercial real estate field. She is a candidate for the Certified Commercial Investment Member, CCIM, designation. The CCIM designation is awarded to those who complete a graduate level curriculum that focuses on marketing, market evaluation and investment analysis.

Autumn is member on the board of CASA, a program that recruits and trains volunteers to represent neglected and abused children in the Allen County Superior Court's jurisdiction. She is also a proud member of the Young Leaders of Northeast Indiana (YLNi). YLNi strives to attract young professionals to Northeast Indiana by hosting networking events and programs that allow members to give back to the community.

Autumn graduated from the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University with a Finance and Real Estate degree and a concentration in International Studies. She spent a semester in Florence, Italy where an appreciation for art, history, and architecture developed. While attending college, Autumn was a member of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority where she held numerous leadership positions, volunteered at Crestmont Boys' and Girls' Club and was a teaching assistant for a computer class at the Kelley School of Business.
