

Michelle Luce Marketing and Research Coordinator

Michelle has worked in the real estate industry for eight years. As the founder/president of her own mortgage loan signing company, she has closed more than 1,500 loans for the top-producing mortgage companies in the country. Michelle has also performed marketing and research functions for local title companies. Prior to her work in the real estate industry, Michelle worked for the graphics division of an international advertising and marketing company. Michelle is a graduate of Indiana University in Bloomington where she majored in journalism with a concentration in marketing. She also is a certified notary public and carries a current Indiana Title Producer's License, which qualifies her to perform mortgage loan closings throughout the state.

Michelle's qualifications include:

Copy Editor and Writer for various regional and national publications

Client Liaison between graphics department and corporate customers at international advertising agency

Business Founder of regional mortgage loan closing company

Company Marketing Coordinator and Researcher

Michelle@bndcommercial.com (260) 407-0900

