

David specializes in the sales and leasing of industrial, office, retail and investment properties in Northern Indiana. He began his career in commercial real estate in 1999. Since the beginning of his commercial real estate career David has been involved in larger industrial, office and retail projects. Prior to his commercial real estate career he owned a dental and medical supply company that distributed throughout the Midwest. David's success with his company led to the sale to Henry Schein, the nation's largest dental retailer. David graduated from Indiana University School of Business with a degree in Finance. David is currently in the process of completing his (SIOR) Society of Industrial and Office Realtors and (CCIM) Certified Commercial Investment Member designations.
